

Supporting good hospital climate

We are successful in creating the healthy climate in the hospital thanks to involving suitable activities for patients, visitors and employees. The most popular activities are the walks within the Prague surroundings, the chorus AkorD performances, setting up libraries in the hospital area and other similar activities. We are happy to support the tradition which is successfully being established around these projects and activities.

University Hospital Motol
Prague, Czech Republic

